LONGER RACES POPULAR

ATTEMPT TO BE MADE IN THE COMING SEA SON TO PROVIDE MORE OF THEM.

Requirements of the Jockey Club Not Adhered To on New York Tracks Because of Scarcity of Horses Suitable for Such Races

(By Ed Cole.)

"If there were more horses that would go a longer route there would be more races over long courses, but the sprinters must also be taken care of."

Such was the reply to a question about long-distance racing put to Fred Rehberger, who has spent nearly all his life in a racing secretary's office, being a protege of the late Mr. McIntyre. At the present time he is discharging the duties of secretary at Belmont Park, Saratoga, Aqueduct and Havre de Grace, consequently he should know whereof he speaks.

The advisability of longer races has been a subject of debate in around-the-stove arguments this winter in local racing circles. Not so much has it been discussed by horsemen as among the patrons of racing and the public generally. Taking the consensus of opinion, there is no question that both regular and the public generally. Taking the consensus of opinion, there is no question that both regular and translent race-goers favor long-distance the difficulties that beset a secretary in providing races that will furnish contests of the right sort.

"I would like to see more races over longer courses," said Mr. Rehberger; "in fact, the rules of the Jockey Club call for more than we have, but when there are not sufficient horses to create the public criticize, and if we don't make races to suit every trainer there is criticism. It is a hard matter to please everybody. The rules call for only one race a day at less than a mile, for three-year-olds and over, after June 1, and the confittions are framed accordingly, but when the race won't cill be have to do the best we clift to make of and substituting new conditions, but we always try to fill a long race before declaring it off.

"In the autumn and the winter months it is much easier to get fields together for the longer distances than it is in the spring, especially in this district, as the horses which begin racing here are hardly seasoned after a winter's rest. Then, too, when the season of th with them."

Mr. McKinney was asked if he had seen the twoyear-old colt by Colin—Acalot bought by Tom Welsh in England and said to be the star of all the young horses brought here from abroad. "I have not seen him." answered Mr. McKinney, "but I am like the man who had a good horse and was telling his friend about him when the friend snapped in with an offer to bet $20 he had one that could beat him. I think I have one that can beat him, no matter how good he is, Colin may have gotten a fine colt from Acalot. I hope he has and if he is anything like the lot we have at Churchill Downs his prospects have not been exaggerated."

According to the present schedule Clancy will have not been exaggerated."

According to the present schedule Clancr will have some of the Wickliffe youngsters ready for racing in Kentucky next spring, after which they will be brought east to compete in the stakes for which many imported horses have been entered. There will be others of the hone product in competition which will give the world a line on the class of horses raised in Kentucky and other states as compared with those of noble lineage from the other side of the Atlantic.

NEW ORLEANS TRACK IMPROVING FAST.

PERCENTAGE OF WINNING FAVORITES IN THE PAST TWO YEARS

Experience teaches that, year in and year out, about forty per cent. of favorites win. There is some variation from this mark, something less one year and something more another, but massing a number of consecutive years will bring about the result named. In 1914 the percentage fell below the normal mark, while in 1915 it was exactly attained. This does not include a number of minor tracks, but only those of importance in the public mind. Some of the tracks, Belmont Park for instance, annually have a high average in this matter, while others, the admirably conducted Kentucky tracks, for another instance, generally are below the forty per cent, mark. These track peculiarities are worth consideration by students of racing problems. The comparison for 1914 and 1915 is as follows:

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING TWO-YEAR-OLDS OF 1915

There is fairly good reason for thinking some of the two-year-olds of last year were of quite good class. It will take the three-year-old racing of this year to determine the real quality of the Futurity winner, Thunderer, However, Dominant, Thunderer, Dodge, George, Smith, Bulse, Bromo, Ormesdale and others gave sterling demonstrations of their ability to run fast and stay resolutely and that is sufficient to hold out cheerful promise for this year's racing. Then our native-bred ones will have to come into active conflict with a big band of representatives of England's best breeding, and great interest will attach to the clashing. Here are our thirty best winners of last year: Sts. 1st. 2d. 3d.Unp. Won Col. Sex

Steady sunshine beat down on the course today and the track superintendent and his crew succeeded in getting rid of the moisture. By nightfall the track was in good condition and, if it does not rain between now and tomorrow afternoon, the going will be almost fast.

The past week was the banner one of the meeting to date in every respect, as the horses which contested for the handicaps were of better quality, the better grade of selling platers were seen in several of the high-priced selling handicaps, and the attendance was above the average, despite the fact that on the first two days of the week the weather was colder here than it has been in years. The way the people turned out for the racing on the cold days astonished even the officials of the Business Men's Racing Association.

One handicap of $700, five of $600 and a selling handicap worth $500 will be decided during the coming week. The $700 handicap will be run on Saturday, as will one of the $600 handicaps, while Thursday will be the only day that there will not be a $600 purse on the program. On this day as selling handicap will be run. On Friday the handicap will be for three-year-olds, but the others will be for three-year-olds and over. Long distance racing will again be a feature of the week, with Tuesday as the banner day. All six races on this day will be at a mile or more.

Due to the consistency of Dick Williams, J. W. Schorr's wonderfully improved three-year-old gelding, that turfinan is leading the purse-winning owners bay a comfortable margin. The son of Dick Finnell has won three races here, in one of them beating a band of cheap selling platers and in the other two defeating handicap horses. To date the Schorr stable has won $3.195 in purses, with the Marrone Stable next with $2.345 to its credit. Those who have won $700 or over follow in the order named: G. A. Cochran, $1.390; C. J. Brockmill winners, while McDermott, Robinson and T. McTaggart have each three to their credit. Thirty-four riders have won one or more races since the meeting began.

STARRING AT NEW ORLEANS

J. J. LILLIS REFORMS AND NOW IS BOTH A STAYER AND A SPRINTER.

Kentucky Two-Year-Olds Begin to Show Good Form and Interrupt the Cochran Youngsters' Winning Career.

New Orleans, La., January 23.—Just as much as he was noted at one time for his lack of gameness, J. J. Lillis, the Marrone stable's crack five-year-old gelding, which was the first horse to win three races in 1916, and also the first to touch two track records in the new year, is now noted for his gameness. It was not such a long time ago that this horse when challenged would quit, or at least try to unless he had an unusually strong rider on him, but now he runs harder and better when closely pressed than at any other time. He demonstrated in the three races which he won at the Fair Grounds that he can either go to the front or come from behind and he left no doubt in the minds of horsemen and turfites in general here, that he is especially good at the latter when he wore down such sprinters as Bringhurst and Pan Zareta to defeat them at three-quarters.

J. J. Lillis is a brown gelding by Bannockburn—Tootsy Mack and he was bred by Barney Schreiber, who was on hand to witness his excellent running at the Fair Grounds. His dam is a half-sister to Katy of the West, which was the dam of the celebrated race horse Hermis, and on the strength of his good breeding there is little doubt but that he has developed into a real good race horse. He was sold by Schreiber at the same sale at waich the good race Harry Shaw and Snifty Allen were disposed of, and he cost the Marrone stable $1,500.

In the first thirteen days of racing at the Fair Grounds this winter he started four times, finish-

In the first thirteen days of racing at the Fair Grounds this winter he started four times, finishing in front thrice, and third the other time. The only time he was beaten was on the opening day when the track was heavy, and such superior made the start of the control of the way. Thus far the officials have had to render only one ruling on account of a horse showing a form reversal, that being in the case of the horse Gallon, which finished a beaten off last one day and won his next start. Example of their fairness in the matter was that Sam Louis had bid Gallon up $300 over his entered price before he knew that the horse was suspended and they gave him his choice of withdrawing the bid or letting it stand, Naturally, after he found that the horse would be useless to him at this meeting, he withdrew.

MOST SUCCESSFUL RIDERS THIS YEAR.

The racing campaign of 1916 is still young, but already several prospective jockeys have made favorable impressions, while those of already established reputation have been riding with their accustomed skill. At New Orleans T. Koerner, in particular, has been riding with all the vigor and judgment of his best days, and if he can keep it up should play an important part in the saddle this year. Others who have so far been riding with marked success are A. Pickens. H. Shilling, E. Taplin, C. Hunt, D. Connelly, W. Schamerhorn and J. Pitz. Up to and including Saturday those who had five armore winning mounts to their credit since January 1 1916, are:

TWO MORE RACES FOR BEDWELL HORSES.

Havana, Cuba, January 23.—The Bedwell stable scored a double this afternoon when Marjorie A. and Pardner won; the former had to be hard ridden, while Pardner won cantering. The latter was entered for $300 and there was no bid. Taplin had the mount on both. The suspensions imposed on jockeys Parrington and Dominick expired today and the former had six mounts. Jockey Lapaille left here suddenly and, it is surmised, was told to go.

After jockey Gartner's poor exhibition on Argument in the third race he was suspended for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding and general incompetency.

Centauri was purchased by J. B. Goodman and ran in his colors today. After Ben Quince scored in the fourth race he was bid up from $600 to $1,200 and bought by W. C. Weant.

The attendance was the largest of the meeting. At the conclusion of the afternoon's sport the stewards issued the following ruling: "Jockey Parrington is suspended for the rest of the meeting for striking jockey Wolstenholm with his whip in the second race. His badge has been taken up and he is denied the privileges of the course."

Parrington was suspended for rough riding and insubordination some time ago and rode his first race today at the expiration of that suspension. He was warned that he must respect the rights of others and was told to report if anybody interfered with him.

Stonelenge was claimed by H. G. Bedwell and Volant by J. B. Goodman.

Stonehenge was claimed by H. G. Bedwell and Volant by J. B. Goodman.

MR. RYAN STARTING IN THE RIGHT WAY.

New York, January 23.—A cable received from England yesterday announced the purchase of five richly bred thoroughbred mares by Thomas Fortune Ryan, who a few years ago established the Oak Ridge Stock Farm in Virginia. The purchases are: Red Ruff, br. m, 6, by Collar-Red Virgin, by Gallinale; in foal to Duke Michael, Amphoraria, ch. m, 10, by Amphion—Spinningjenny, by Kendal; in foal to Shogun, Auspicious, ch. m, 11, by Gallinule—Astrology, by Hermit; in foal to Coriander.

Mintless, b. m, 10, by Minting—Gorseberry, by Crowberry.

Mintless, b. m., 10, by Minting—Gorseberry, by Crowberty.
Court Holiday, b. m., 6, by Queen's Birthday—Risby, by Juggler; in foal to Bonarosa.
Mr. Ryan owns the good English stallion Sea King, a son of Persimmon, which is now at Hamburg Place, and these purchases were made with an idea of affording him a better chance. All of the old matrons at Oakridge have been disposed of and Mr. Ryan is contemplating other purchases.

LONG-PRICED WINNERS SCORE AT JUAREZ

El Paso, Tex., January 23.—The Juarez track was still in a heavy condition today, although it had began to dry out materially. The principal racing offering of the day was a seven-eighths handicap, in which H. L. Craine's lightly-weighted Star of Love was returned the winner by a nose over the three-year-old Brooks from the stable of Wade McLemore. Large and unwieldy fields of cheap platers went to the post in several of the races and, as often happens in such cases, the winners were at long odds in the betting.

These included Leduc, at 20 to 1, Meal Ticket, 12 to 1, and Kid Nelson, 6 to 1. All had good winning margins at the end of their respective races. First Star was the only winning favorite. If no more rain falls the track will be in its normally fast condition when racing is resumed ca Tuesday.

BURLEW GOING ABROAD FOR RACERS.

BURLEW GOING ABROAD FOR RACERS.

New York, January 23.—Fred Burlew sailed on the steamship Espagne yesterday for Bordeaux and will shortly return with a considerable shipment of English two-year-olds and three-year-olds that are to be offered on the American market. These thoroughbreds were selected by W. B. Duke and Frank O'Neill and their partners in the transactions are Fred Burlew and Charles Hill, who returned to New York some time ago.

WINNING TWO-YEAR-OLDS AT JUAREZ.

Jockey Records for the First Forty Days of the Mexican Meeting.

Mexican Meeting.

El Paso, Tex., January 23.—The winner of the first race for two-year-olds here this year proved to be the brown filly May W., a well-developed, good-looking new-comer, a daughter of Ben Trovato—Belle of Mayfield, which was bred by O. H. Chenault at Spendthrift Stud, Lexington, Ky., and sold by him last fall at the Lationia track to her present owner for $500. She is a half-sister to the stake winner Belle Terre and two other winners. May W. is entirely of English blood on the dam's side and her fifth dam was the famous race mare Dulcibella. winner of the Cesarewitch and other great races. Ben Trovato, May W.'s sire, was raced with much success by Carroll B. Reid, who still owns an interest in him, and in the latter's colors he ran a mile in 1:37%, a mile and an eighth in 1:52 on two different occasious, and a mile and a quarter in 2:04%. He is by Falsetto or Alvescot—Golden Rose, by Goldfinch, and richly and fashionably bred. May W. is the first of his get to race.

At the first meeting at Juarez of 1909-1910 the inaugural two-year-old winner was Princess Industry, by Farandole—Work, owned by C. C. Van Meter, while in 1911 the first two-year-old race of the year fell-to Royal Tea, by Right Royal—Tee-Ky-Tee, then owned by Sam Lazarus. In 1912 I. that time only one of his mounts had run unplaced under him. It was here last winter that M. Garner first showed high ability as a rider, but, good as was the record he made during the racing season of 1915. a number of good judges have already expressed themselves as being of the opinion that his work in the saddle here then was not up to the work done in the pigskin this winter by the four midget riders, T. Henry, H. Shilling, C. Hunt and E. Graves.

Owing to there being few races in which he can get a mount on a good horse at weights at which he can ride, J. Loftus has not had his average number of mounts here this winter, but his work has always been gilt-edged on any horse with a winning chance and he is still the same brilliant post rider and finisher as of old. He keeps himself in first-class condition at all times, but finds it difficult in this altitude to keep down to the weight he can ride at in the states.

All around, there is nothing lackin- in the riding ability of the jockeys accepting mounts here this winter and some of the younger fraternity which have been riding so brilliantly are sure to be stars on any track they ride over in 1916.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

At Yuma, Arizona, Saturday, Mayor Charles C. Moore died of heart failure, ascribed to excitement, and the whole city was thrown into banic as a result of the flooding of Yuma, due to the breaking of the reclamation service levee along the Colorado river. While the torrent was racing through the city United States soldiers were rushed out to help restore order. The current in the main street was four feet deep. It was deeper in the older buildings, including 100 houses. The levee broke south of Yuma and released a wall of water upon the valley. Another levee on the California side of the river also broke and threatened great damage to the irrigation project there. Communication with the Imperial Valley of California is cut off, so it is impossible to learn what damage has been done in that region. The flood put out of commission the utilities plants at Yuma, leaving the stricks ity. Company D., Twelfth United States Infantry, commanded by Acting Captain Sampson, is patrolling the city, Most of the people were taken to the

TWENTY LEADING AMERICAN MONEY-WINNING STALLIONS OF 1915

The sons and daughters of Broomstick lacked $4,656 of placing as much money won to his credit as they did in 1914, but of more importance is the fact that they won sufficient to give him the premiership for the third year in succession. This is a distinction gained by no other sire in this country since Hanover headed the sire list for the four years of 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1898. Star Shoot was Broomstick's closest competitor, just as he was in 1914, but the combined earnings of his progeny also fell off, to such an extent that Broomstick's excess of money was greater than it was in 1914. Ogden had some good representatives in the racing of 1915, the good colt, The Finn, doing him especial credit as the leading money-winning three-year-old of the year. In consequence he finished third in the sire list and not far behind Star Shoot in the aggregate of money won by his progeny. In 1914 he had been fourth to Peep o'Day's third, but in 1915 the positions were reversed, Peep o'Day now finishing fourth, less than $2,000 in advance of McGee, with Hastings next. The customary changes in the list of twenty leading stallions involved the admission of Fair Play, Plaudit, Rock Sand, Hamburg, Transvaal, Waterboy, Bryn Mawr and Celt as newcomers, and the corresponding exclusion of Ben Brush, Cesarion, Knight Errant, Peter Quince, Aeronaut, Ultimus, Voter and Woolsthorpe, Some of these will come back. The changes made the native-bred division of the twenty leaders fourteen in number to six foreign-bred. Hamburg's return in the year of his death was due to the high-class racing of his son Borrow, and Rock Sand's because the great war abroad enforced the retention of his American-bred youngsters in the land of their birth.

The twenty leading sires of 1915, the number of their representatives in racing and the winnings of the latter are here given in interesting detail:

Commenting on the report of the British vice admiral, R. H. S. Bacon, regarding the naval operations off the Belgian coast last summer and autumn, as given out by a British news agency, the Berlin newspapers declare among other things that contrary to the report little damage was done and only one soldier was killed and six were wounded.

The Manchester Courier, established in 1825, of the oldest conservative daily newspapers in English provinces, has fallen a victim to the and announces its approaching suspension, "or to the rapid rise in the price of paper." I Northeliffe bought the paper in 1904, but recegave it up.

Northeliffe bought the paper in 1904, but recently gave it up.

From five to twenty persons were killed early Saturday when a snowslide swept two coaches from the rear end of the Spokane Owl train No. 25 of the Great Northern railroad down the mountain side into a ravine 300 feet below at Corea, Wash, forty miles from Leavenworth. Five bodies have been recovered.

A decree was issued Sunday by the Austrian government extending the military age limit from 50 to 55 years. The new levies above 50 years will be employed for garrison and other like services. These men will serve for six weeks continuously and then be furloughed for one or two months.

censorship, as practised by the French government, was severely criticised by various speakers in the chamber of deputies. No conclusion, however, was reached, the debate, at the request of Premier Briand, being postponed until next Tuesday.

In order to permit freer movements of provision trains into Petrograd and relieve the shortage of necessities, passenger traffic between Petrograd and Moscow has been suspended except one train daily for one week.

SANFORD STRING TO TRAIN IN SOUTH.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURE.

Commenting on the report of the British vice admiral, R. H. S. Bacon, regarding the naval operations off the Belgian coast last summer and autumn, as given out by a British news agency, the Berlin newspapers declare among other things that contrary to the report little damage was done and only one soldier was killed and six were wounded.

The German and French governments, says the Overseas News Agency of Berlin, have agreed to set free evil prisoners in both countries who are not subject to military service. Under this agreement all men younger than 17 years and over 55 will be released and sent home, also all other men unfit for military duties, and all women.

The Frankfurter Zeitung proposes that Germany negotiate a separate peace with Belgium, and adds that the Belgians probably will look with favor upon a peace offer. At present Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg considers Belgium only as an article of exchange for territory seized by the allies, said the Zeitung.

The Manchester Courier, established in 1825 one of the oldest government, established in 1825 one of the oldest government and the propose that the selegian probably will look with favor upon a peace offer. At present Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg considers Belgium only as an article of exchange for territory seized by the allies, said the Zeitung.

The Australian jockey F. Bullock will remain in Australia if there is no racing in England during the coming season. Bullock spent six years in Germany, and though satisfied with his treatment there, was not sorry to return to England.

Candy Land is the name which G. W. Loft has given to the yearling colt by Dick Welles—Etelka which he purchased from John E. Madden of Hamburg Place. This is a black colt, fully 15% hands high, and rangy and stout for his height.

POMMERN WILL BE RACED AGAIN.

London, January 23.—Sol Joel, the owner of Pommern, who has just returned from South Africa, has decided not to retire that crack race horse from the track. At the close of last season he was booked for the stud with his honors thick upon him, for it will be remembered that by winning the triple crown of English racing last year he joined the select few that have won the Two Thousand Guineas, the Derby and the St. Leger. The greatness of Pommern has led racing men often to wonder what is his purchase value. Mr. Joel has no idea of selling him; in fact, he could not be bought. But the best judges have fixed his value in normal times in the neighborhood of $200 000.

NAMES FOR SOME ODOM TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

New York, January 23.—George M. Odom has selected names for three of his most promising two-year-olds. The chestnut filly which thus far seems to be the star of the lot, by Ogden—Beatrice K., has been named Whitney Belle. The bay colt by Ogden—Country Frand, which, next to Whitney Belle, brought the highest price at the sale in which he was bought, has been named Ed Garrison, after the famous jockey, who is still a familiar figure in the racing of the metropolitan circuit. The big bay colt by Chaetanunda—Toplash, has been named after jockey Tommy McTaggart.

E. R. BRADLEY'S STRING FOR 1916.

New York, January 23.—A letter received from Lexington tells of the preparation that is being made of the horses that will be campaigned in the colors of E. R. Bradley this season. Trainer Hammon has them at Mr. Bradley's Idle Hour Farm in training. In the lot are Bradley's Choice, Black Toney, Bars and Stars, Bob's Olga, Blind Baggage, May Bird, Desmond's Day and these two-year-olds: Chestnut filly by Cunard—Love Not; chestnut filly by Cunard—Love Not; chestnut filly by Cunard—Eonic; chestnut filly by Electioneer—Miss Bessie; black colt by Sain—Whisk Broom; bay filly by Helmet—Melton Mowbray; bay filly by Dark Ronald—Romagne; bay filly by Ormondale—Arthesia. The last-named filly is the property of George C. Bennett of Memphis.

Desmond's Day and May Bird, as well as the Dark Ronald filly were purchased in England for Mr. Bradley by Hammon last fall. The first named is a bay son of Desmond and Palmy Days, while May Bird is a chestnut daughter of Thrush and May Bruce.

Winner—Ch. g by Peter Quince—Benita Brush (trained by G. M. Ridge).

Went to post at 4:22. At post 9 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving, BEN QUINCE followed the leader under slight restraint for the first three-quarters, then easily passed STONEHENGE in the homestretch. A long delay at the barrier did not improve STONEHENGE'S chances and his weight told on him in the last quarter, but he set a fast pace and finished gamely, DEL-LA MACK closed a gap and outstayed LOCHIEL. The latter tired. ZOROASTER raced on the outside of the leaders all the way. The winner, entered for $600, was bid up to $1,200 and sold to W. C. Weaut.
